Elation Europe to hold Obsidian ONYX PRO Training Day July 3rd

Elation Europe will be holding a PRO Training Day July 3rd dedicated to Obsidian Control Systems' ONYX lighting control platform. ONYX foundation training will take users from console start-up through software layout to patching and running a basic show. Powerful, easy to learn and fun to use, ONYX is designed for use with all Obsidian lighting control systems.

The goal of ONYX foundation training is to gain confidence in patching and running a show from scratch while acquiring a basic understanding of features. The training will take place at Elation's European Headquarter office in Kerkrade, The Netherlands.
