Elation Lights to Feature on Musikmesse Center Stage at Prolight + Sound

After seeing the latest Elation Professional lighting products at Stand F60/61 in Hall 4 at the upcoming Prolight + Sound exhibition in Frankfurt, visitors won't have far to go to see Elation lighting in action on a full blown lighting stage. A full complement of Elation products will be featuring at the Musikmesse Center Stage venue in the heart of the exhibition, where bands will perform and product demos will take place over the course of the fair.

Leading international provider of cutting-edge event and media technology, satis&fy, is supplying the technical equipment for Center Stage, including the sound and lighting gear, and will be operating the consoles at FOH. The Center Stage presents an excellent opportunity for visitors of Prolight + Sound to see for themselves some of the real-world possibilities with Elation lighting.

The Center Stage rig will be mostly made up of Elation lights and will include a complementary mix of 26 Platinum FLX™ hybrid moving heads, 28 x SixBar™ series LED battens, 10 ACL 360 Matrix™ LED moving head panels, 8 x DTW Blinder 700 IP™ variable white LED blinders, 4 x Protron 3K LED strobes and 4 x Protron 3K Color LED strobes. Music of all kinds will be presented on stage from rock, pop, jazz and folk to classical with some of the highlights to include performances by Deep Purple keyboardist Don Airey, legendary guitarist Steve Stevens, and the New Philharmonic Orchestra Frankfurt.
