Elation Europe Offers PRO Training Days in August

Following Elation Europe's popular PRO Service Days in May, Elation Professional is offering PRO Training Days to be held August 20th and August 21st at Elation's European Customer Care Center in Kerkrade, The Netherlands

Day One of the factory-authorized training will focus on Elation's Capture Polar lighting design software and Emulation/Emulation Pro lighting control software. Day Two will cover Elation's Zeus media server including the Arkaos Media Master Pro.

ELATION PRO THEME day

The training will be headed by qualified Elation instructors and costs 30€ per person per day which also covers lunch. Registration is required but there are only 15 spaces available so register today to ensure a spot. To register, please visit https://s3.amazonaws.com/Elation/Register_proday_08-2014.pdf

As Elation continues to expand its market presence across Europe, the company has put in place the training and service infrastructure needed to support the higher demand for its products, an initiative the company is supporting with the upcoming PRO Training Days.

Elation's European headquarters is centrally located on the German / Belgian border and can be easily reached from the UK, Belgium, Germany and France. For details, questions and/or help with accommodations, please contact Elation Europe at info@elationlighting.eu, +31 (0)45 546 85 66.
